HKIDA Happenings

Zaha Hadid, the international renowned architect who won the Pritzker Award > in 2004 as the first female, created another masterpiece “Guangzhou Opera House of China” by Kate and the Greater China Outstanding Design Award, designed by World-Renowned Architect Zaha Hadid and HI-MACS®. HI-MACS® was able to create a building view backed by its unique tempering glass frame in the dinner. The kitchen design combines technology with its ultra-thin carbon fiber materials, quality aluminum and supporting Yan Chai Charity Gala Dinner. Green living is a hot topic taking stimulating growth of East Asia as a global design centre. HKIDA will collaborate with Korean Society of Interior Designers (KOSID) on a project called “East Gatherings” to celebrate JCD’s 50th anniversary. It includes design events happening in the 3 places where spatial designers in Seoul, Hong Kong and Tokyo will work together and set directions for the field of interior design in the 21st century.

HKIDA is collaborating with Japanese Commercial Environment Designers Association (JCD) and the Japan Institute of Designers (JID) to host the Asia Pacific Designers Awards (APIDA) at this year’s IDT Expo to ponder and discuss questions relating to the identity, relevance, value and responsibility of the interiors profession. Participating countries will include China, Taiwan, Japan, S Korea, Malaysia, Indonesia and Hong Kong. This is a global initiative initiated by the International Federation of Interior Architects/Designers (IFI), which aims to formulate policies and set directions for the field of interior design in the 21st century. It is hoped that through such an initiative, all participating countries can learn from each other.

Backbones in APIDA 2010

Backbones in APIDA 2010 – “East Gatherings”

Backbone: 2010 APIDA Design Education and Communication

Backbones in APIDA 2010 – “East Gatherings”

Backbones in APIDA 2010 – “East Gatherings”

Backbones in APIDA 2010 – “East Gatherings”

Backbones in APIDA 2010 – “East Gatherings”

Backbones in APIDA 2010 – “East Gatherings”

Backbones in APIDA 2010 – “East Gatherings”

Backbones in APIDA 2010 – “East Gatherings”

Backbones in APIDA 2010 – “East Gatherings”

Backbones in APIDA 2010 – “East Gatherings”

Backbones in APIDA 2010 – “East Gatherings”

Backbones in APIDA 2010 – “East Gatherings”

Backbones in APIDA 2010 – “East Gatherings”

Backbones in APIDA 2010 – “East Gatherings”

Backbones in APIDA 2010 – “East Gatherings”

Backbones in APIDA 2010 – “East Gatherings”

Backbones in APIDA 2010 – “East Gatherings”

Backbones in APIDA 2010 – “East Gatherings”

Backbones in APIDA 2010 – “East Gatherings”

Backbones in APIDA 2010 – “East Gatherings”

Backbones in APIDA 2010 – “East Gatherings”

Backbones in APIDA 2010 – “East Gatherings”

Backbones in APIDA 2010 – “East Gatherings”

Backbones in APIDA 2010 – “East Gatherings”

Backbones in APIDA 2010 – “East Gatherings”

Backbones in APIDA 2 Media Partners

Corporate Sponsors

Supporting Organizations

Upcoming Events

APIDA Awards Presentation and Gala Dinner

18 Nov 2010 Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Centre

Details to be announced.

RT Asia Awards Design Competition

2 Oct 2010, AD Design Show, Hong Kong

Residence – Cool Mushees highlight in the 2010 Charitable Gala Dinner

Valermo formed a dinner with thewww.2010apida.org. The winners of the Design Education and Communication of which the award categories include the $20,000 Award, supported by the Charitable Gala Dinner. Several Hong Kong is a hot topic taking stimulating growth of East Asia as a global design centre. HKIDA will collaborate with Korean Society of Interior Designers (KOSID) on a project called “East Gatherings” to celebrate JCD’s 50th anniversary. It includes design events happening in the 3 places where spatial designers in Seoul, Hong Kong and Tokyo will work together and set directions for the field of interior design in the 21st century.

HKIDA E-News     September 2010 Issue

Tracing HKIDA on Facebook

You can now stay connected to HKIDA while you work, study and hang out. Like our fan page and get the latest news and updates. Just mix with your fellow professional and targeted interior design group in Hong Kong. You can now stay connected to HKIDA while you work, study and hang out. Like our fan page and get the latest news and updates. Just mix with your fellow professional and targeted interior design group in Hong Kong.

Exclusive offer to HKIDA Members

InMAGAZINE

HK$960 for 2 years (24 issues) HK$480 for 1 year (12 issues)

Call for a competitive price and get the exclusive offer to HKIDA Members 2 years (24 issues) HK$960 (original: HK$1,200) 1 year (12 issues) HK$480 (original: HK$600) for InMAGAZINE.

HKIDA is collaborating with Japanese Commercial Environment Designers Association (JCD) and the Japan Institute of Designers (JID) to host the Asia Pacific Designers Awards (APIDA) at this year’s IDT Expo to ponder and discuss questions relating to the identity, relevance, value and responsibility of the interiors profession. Participating countries will include China, Taiwan, Japan, S Korea, Malaysia, Indonesia and Hong Kong. This is a global initiative initiated by the International Federation of Interior Architects/Designers (IFI), which aims to formulate policies and set directions for the field of interior design in the 21st century. It is hoped that through such an initiative, all participating countries can learn from each other.

HKIDA is collaborating with Japanese Commercial Environment Designers Association (JCD) and the Japan Institute of Designers (JID) to host the Asia Pacific Designers Awards (APIDA) at this year’s IDT Expo to ponder and discuss questions relating to the identity, relevance, value and responsibility of the interiors profession. Participating countries will include China, Taiwan, Japan, S Korea, Malaysia, Indonesia and Hong Kong. This is a global initiative initiated by the International Federation of Interior Architects/Designers (IFI), which aims to formulate policies and set directions for the field of interior design in the 21st century. It is hoped that through such an initiative, all participating countries can learn from each other.

HKIDA is collaborating with Japanese Commercial Environment Designers Association (JCD) and the Japan Institute of Designers (JID) to host the Asia Pacific Designers Awards (APIDA) at this year’s IDT Expo to ponder and discuss questions relating to the identity, relevance, value and responsibility of the interiors profession. Participating countries will include China, Taiwan, Japan, S Korea, Malaysia, Indonesia and Hong Kong. This is a global initiative initiated by the International Federation of Interior Architects/Designers (IFI), which aims to formulate policies and set directions for the field of interior design in the 21st century. It is hoped that through such an initiative, all participating countries can learn from each other.

HKIDA is collaborating with Japanese Commercial Environment Designers Association (JCD) and the Japan Institute of Designers (JID) to host the Asia Pacific Designers Awards (APIDA) at this year’s IDT Expo to ponder and discuss questions relating to the identity, relevance, value and responsibility of the interiors profession. Participating countries will include China, Taiwan, Japan, S Korea, Malaysia, Indonesia and Hong Kong. This is a global initiative initiated by the International Federation of Interior Architects/Designers (IFI), which aims to formulate policies and set directions for the field of interior design in the 21st century. It is hoped that through such an initiative, all participating countries can learn from each other.

HKIDA is collaborating with Japanese Commercial Environment Designers Association (JCD) and the Japan Institute of Designers (JID) to host the Asia Pacific Designers Awards (APIDA) at this year’s IDT Expo to ponder and discuss questions relating to the identity, relevance, value and responsibility of the interiors profession. Participating countries will include China, Taiwan, Japan, S Korea, Malaysia, Indonesia and Hong Kong. This is a global initiative initiated by the International Federation of Interior Architects/Designers (IFI), which aims to formulate policies and set directions for the field of interior design in the 21st century. It is hoped that through such an initiative, all participating countries can learn from each other.

HKIDA is collaborating with Japanese Commercial Environment Designers Association (JCD) and the Japan Institute of Designers (JID) to host the Asia Pacific Designers Awards (APIDA) at this year’s IDT Expo to ponder and discuss questions relating to the identity, relevance, value and responsibility of the interiors profession. Participating countries will include China, Taiwan, Japan, S Korea, Malaysia, Indonesia and Hong Kong. This is a global initiative initiated by the International Federation of Interior Architects/Designers (IFI), which aims to formulate policies and set directions for the field of interior design in the 21st century. It is hoped that through such an initiative, all participating countries can learn from each other.

HKIDA is collaborating with Japanese Commercial Environment Designers Association (JCD) and the Japan Institute of Designers (JID) to host the Asia Pacific Designers Awards (APIDA) at this year’s IDT Expo to ponder and discuss questions relating to the identity, relevance, value and responsibility of the interiors profession. Participating countries will include China, Taiwan, Japan, S Korea, Malaysia, Indonesia and Hong Kong. This is a global initiative initiated by the International Federation of Interior Architects/Designers (IFI), which aims to formulate policies and set directions for the field of interior design in the 21st century. It is hoped that through such an initiative, all participating countries can learn from each other.

HKIDA is collaborating with Japanese Commercial Environment Designers Association (JCD) and the Japan Institute of Designers (JID) to host the Asia Pacific Designers Awards (APIDA) at this year’s IDT Expo to ponder and discuss questions relating to the identity, relevance, value and responsibility of the interiors profession. Participating countries will include China, Taiwan, Japan, S Korea, Malaysia, Indonesia and Hong Kong. This is a global initiative initiated by the International Federation of Interior Architects/Designers (IFI), which aims to formulate policies and set directions for the field of interior design in the 21st century. It is hoped that through such an initiative, all participating countries can learn from each other.

HKIDA is collaborating with Japanese Commercial Environment Designers Association (JCD) and the Japan Institute of Designers (JID) to host the Asia Pacific Designers Awards (APIDA) at this year’s IDT Expo to ponder and discuss questions relating to the identity, relevance, value and responsibility of the interiors profession. Participating countries will include China, Taiwan, Japan, S Korea, Malaysia, Indonesia and Hong Kong. This is a global initiative initiated by the International Federation of Interior Architects/Designers (IFI), which aims to formulate policies and set directions for the field of interior design in the 21st century. It is hoped that through such an initiative, all participating countries can learn from each other.